

Tending the Charter

Use it when... life changes, or it's time for your review.

*The Charter serves you; you do not serve the Charter.
Walk it on a rhythm, the way a vinedresser walks the rows.*

WHEN	HOW LONG	THE ONE QUESTION
Weekly	2 min • triad text	"Did my Rule hold this week?"
First Fruits	One evening	"Keep, change or drop?"
90 days	45 min alone, 30 with triad	"What is actually different?"
Six months	Triad half-day	"Which part am I now living?"
Every year • Jubilee Review	About three hours	"Is this still true, or was it provisional?"

REVIEW WITHIN THE MONTH WHEN...

- A lifequake: a health turn, a loss, a move, a new grandchild, a caregiving turn.
- A Readiness gauge drops two points.
- An experiment fails twice.
- The Tuesday page starts to read like fiction.
- The mission line no longer makes you lean forward.

WHEN A LIFEQUAKE HITS

- 1 Tell your triad within a week — before you change a word.
- 2 Wait thirty days before rewriting a Part. Write only a dated note beside §1.0.
- 3 Then walk the whole Charter with the Jubilee Review pages.

AMEND, NEVER ERASE

One line through the old words — they stay readable. New words beside them. In the margin: date, initials, five-word reason.

“Be sure you know the condition of your flocks.”

Proverbs 27:23
