

Status and Testimony

"Bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest." Leviticus 23:10

Two questions, ten minutes at home before First Fruits, two minutes at your table. There is no homework after Session 15 and no grade at the dinner. Unfinished is named, not late. "Here is what I learned" counts.

1 • Status: where am I in my Harvest Charter?

SECTION	DONE • STARTED • NOT YET	ONE LINE
Part One • Foundation (§1.0–§1.4)	☐ done ☐ started ☐ not yet
Part Two • Vision (§2.0–§2.2)	☐ done ☐ started ☐ not yet
§3.1 My First Steps • my experiment	☐ done ☐ started ☐ not yet	Keep • change • drop
§3.2 My Rule & My Triad	☐ done ☐ started ☐ not yet
§4.1 My letter or testament	☐ done ☐ started ☐ not yet
Our triad project	☐ done ☐ started ☐ not yet	Date, or the story

2 • Testimony: what has changed, if anything, about my attitudes and approach to this chapter?

Before WhyzMen I thought this season was _____. Now I think _____.

One thing I do differently on an ordinary Tuesday:

Where I have seen God at work since November:

What my wife, or someone close to me, has noticed:

At your table, two minutes: read one status line and one testimony sentence. Then the wives are asked one question: "What have you noticed?"
